

Potential equalization rail 7x25, 1x50, 30x4.

Product code: Inne.szyna.7x25

The potential equalization rail 7x25, 1x50, 30x4 is a device used to protect electrical installations and lightning protection systems from uncontrolled voltage surges. It is permanently mounted on a rail. The product includes one flat cable measuring 30×4 mm, seven single or multi-wire cables with a cross-section of up to 25 mm², and one round cable with a cross-section of 50 mm².

Product variants

Index	Price
Potential equalization rail 7x25, 1x50, 30x4. Inne.szyna.7x25	Product prices only visible after login. If you do not have an account, please register.

Product description

The potential equalization rail 7x25, 1x50, 30x4 is a device used to protect electrical installations and lightning protection systems from uncontrolled voltage surges. It is permanently mounted on a rail. The product includes one flat cable measuring 30×4 mm, seven single or multi-wire cables with a cross-section of up to 25 mm², and one round cable with a cross-section of 50 mm². Specifications of the potential equalization rail: Length: 181 mm Height: 41 mm Width: 51 mm Mounting: Screw-mounted Conducting materials: Nickel-plated brass, stainless steel