

3-flat grounding rod connector

Product code: Inne.Uziom.ANKOM.03

The 3-plate connector for ground stakes is a dedicated set of connectors used to connect three ground stakes commonly used for installing solar panels in soil. It ensures effective and stable connection, resistance to external conditions, and easy installation compliant with industry standards. This reliable solution provides stability, durability, and safety for the entire system.

Product variants

Index	Price
3-flat grounding rod connector Inne.Uziom.ANKOM.03	Product prices only visible after login. If you do not have an account, please register.

Product description

The 3-plate connector for ground stakes is a dedicated set of connectors used to connect three ground stakes commonly used for installing solar panels in soil. It ensures effective and stable connection, resistance to external conditions, and easy installation compliant with industry standards. This reliable solution provides stability, durability, and safety for the entire system.