

Cable clip mounted to the module frame

Product code: Inne.klipskablowy

The cable clip mounted to the module frame is a practical component in photovoltaic installations for safely routing cables. This metal clip enables secure attachment of cables to the panel frame, ensuring both an aesthetic appearance and secure cable management. One of the main advantages of the cable clip is its ease of installation.

Product variants

Index	Price
Cable clip mounted to the module frame Inne.klipskablowy	Product prices only visible after login. If you do not have an account, please register.

Product description

The cable clip mounted to the module frame is a practical component in photovoltaic installations for safely routing cables. This metal clip enables secure attachment of cables to the panel frame, ensuring both an aesthetic appearance and secure cable management. One of the main advantages of the cable clip is its ease of installation.