

Silver 30mm end clamp

Product code: K.40x40.17

The silver 35mm end clamp, anodized, is a key component in the installation of photovoltaic panels. Made from the highest quality aluminum, it ensures ease of installation and durability in various weather conditions. Thanks to its design and material, it is a reliable solution for securely mounting photovoltaic panels.

Product variants

| Index | Price |
|--|--|
| Silver 30mm end clamp K.40x40.17 | Product prices only visible after login. If you do not have an account, please register. |

Product description

The silver 35mm end clamp, anodized, is a key component in the installation of photovoltaic panels. Made from the highest quality aluminum, it ensures ease of installation and durability in various weather conditions. Thanks to its design and material, it is a reliable solution for securely mounting photovoltaic panels.