

Hexagon socket head screw M8x50mm DIN 912

Product code: Śruba imbusowa m8x50mm DIN912

Hexagon socket head screw M8x50mm DIN 912 is a high-quality fastener known for its precise manufacturing and durability. Made according to the DIN912 standard, it features an M8 thread and a length of 50 mm. Ideal for applications in constructions requiring strong and reliable connections. The screw is equipped with a hex socket (Allen), allowing for easy installation and removal using an Allen key.

Product variants

Index	Price
Hexagon socket head screw M8x50mm DIN 912 Śruba imbusowa m8x50mm DIN912	Product prices only visible after login. If you do not have an account, please register.

Product description

Hexagon socket head screw M8x50mm DIN 912 is a high-quality fastener known for its precise manufacturing and durability. Made according to the DIN912 standard, it features an M8 thread and a length of 50 mm. Ideal for applications in constructions requiring strong and reliable connections. The screw is equipped with a hex socket (Allen), allowing for easy installation and removal using an Allen key.